One two since you said to me
That you wouldn't be my girl
I've been lying in the dark
Scratching up my heart
To need you is blue
Well I've been sitting home
And laying on this couch just watching T.V.
Cause it's all gone wrong some how
I let down your bleeding heart
In time it was a source to fray
One two since you said to me
That you wanted someone else

I've been callin on the phone
Your mom said your not home
To need you is blue
Well I've been sitting home
And laying on this couch just watching T.V.
Cause it's all gone wrong some how
I let down your bleeding heart
In time it was a source to fray
And now your're saying that you want to be friends
