I'm at an end
When does it end
Wont let the walls cave in
I can't see no friend
No one I care to know
We whisper like dead
We're racing in red
Striving to be content
Smell that perfume stench
So I have to go
Hide from the rain
I don't feel the same
I wanna kill the pain
Wanna counter gain
But I feel everything
Fool for today
There's form in the fray
Some people only use
Speak in broken truth
And so you do the same
What do I have today

What do I have today
Why do I feel so cold and dead
Got no friends I can't relate
People today I've lost my faith
Feelin strange I'm still not the same
But fine yeah fine
Innocence it's gone in me
I cut it out
It only bleeds
Every time you left me here
To stand alone
When the world came down on me
What do I have today
What do I have today
Why do I feel so cold and dead
What do I have today
What do I have today
Why do I feel so cold and dead
