Now that your drowning things seem right
Your spineless heart is out in sight
When you were drowning in your hell
No fuckin way you wanted everything
The back wrist scattered blind to red
You'd let me think it's in my head
'cause your a loser nothing else
So no fuckin way you wanted everything
The verdict and no lies are white
No time to right the wrong that's right
You sit there drowning in your hell

No fuckin way you wanted everything
Nothin left that can be said
'cause your a scumbag and I'll help you
When your down when I am dead
Yeah yeah yeah
Yeah no fuckin way you wanted everything
You always say that nothings right
You always say that you were
Always there just drowning in your hell
Yeah yeah yeah
No fuckin way you wanted everything
