There's a stormy sky, beneath the falling snow
Where it's going I don't want to even know Distant world outside, lingers on with it's routine
When I'm here I feel I'm posing for a magazine

Moonlit world outside, casts a shadow through the rain Clouds are moving, changing faces, fade to gray
And so here you are, checking dreams off from your list
It always seems to happen when you're in a place like this

San Juan Skyway, beneath the burning snow
San Juan Skyway, basking in the ever-glow

Crescent moon above, lights the canyon with mystique Clouds are moving, people cruising A to Z
As I'm looking down, from 10,000 feet on high Just caught between the clouds and a town that never dies

San Juan Skyway, beneath the burning snow
San Juan Skyway, basking in the ever-glow

You're making me feel fine, I lost all track of time, I'm always the same when I come around here I'm feeling kind of high, staring at the sky, I'm always the same when I come around here
San Juan, San Juan, San Juan Skyway

San Juan Skyway, beneath the burning snow
San Juan Skyway, basking in the ever-glow
San Juan Skyway, beneath the burning snow
San Juan Skyway, basking in the ever-glow

You're making me feel fine, I lost all track of time, I'm always the same when I come around here
I'm feeling kind of high, staring at the sky, I'm always the same when I come around here SAN JUAN SKYWAY
