(Paul Foglino)

Met a girl last night
she asked if I would stay
I said "All right"
She just turned and walked away
She didn't say why
Must have thought I knew
I guess she just had better things to do
When I first met you
I was nervous in my haste
You're such a lady
A girl of wealth and taste
And when I kissed you
I thought I had it made
Saw pearly gates and touched a razor blade Someone's got to tell me about these morbid
fascinations
Someone's making love and I'm just making conversation
Sometimes I think I've got it but it always comes and goes
It's just a secret that everybody seems to know
When we're together
We're drinking to your health
And when we're talking
You're talking about yourself

I think about you
Call you on the phone
But when I'm with you I just feel more alone
Someone's got to tell me about these sexual relations Someone's making love and I'm just making
conversation
Sometimes I think I've got it but it always comes and
goes
It's just a secret that everybody seems to know
You say you like me
But not like other guys
You tell your friends
You say I'm very nice
It's just a game

And you just want to play
When you break me you can just throw me away
Someone's got to tell me about these morbid
conversation
Sometimes I think I've got it but it always comes and
goes
