You say you wanna set the world alight
I'm just trying to live my life
Without you
Without...

Before you fall between the stepping stones
You don't feel the grip between your toes
You slip you might get a little wet
You might get a bit upset
Till your dry then it's fine

You wont care

Cos if you let them hold you down
You wont get off the ground

You spend all day working in the the sand
Kingdoms made with your own hands
Little man kicks it in
With his big old grin
Just walk away then you can say

I don't care

Cos if you let them hold you down
You wont get off the ground
Your nothing but a stepping stone
I will jump over you

Cos if you let them hold you down
You wont get off the ground
Your nothing but a stepping stone
I will jump over you

Lalala lalala

Your just a stepping stone
I will jump over you
Your just a stepping stone
I will jump over you

I don't care
