Verse 1:

Stop
I don't want to fight
there's nothing to argue I know I'm rite

don't tell me
the things I shoud do I know what I want
and I'll get it without you

Chorus:

I'm on a roll
loosing control
stupid and obnoxious
yes I'm insane

Loosing my mind

falling behind
got to be bad
just to go have a good time

Verse 2:

In my own world
no reason or rhyme
a stray from the flock
a sheep out of line

stuck in my ways
my own point of views
to break from the mold
to start something new
