[Sryan]

Here you go, calling my phone, with another lie I ain't interested in Pretty tired of give and take and tries, watching you do the same thing again Sick of the apologies, don't waste your energy, this is gonna end right now Nothing you say is gonna make it okay, tell, tell me can you hear me now?
(You breaking up, up, up) don't wanna hear another
digital lie
(I'm so fed up, up, up) not another generic reply (I've had enough, nough, nough) I won't hear your excuses this time

[Chorus]

It feels so right when you make me feel shocking
around the clock
I just can't stop from toe to top, a flash of light, a human spark
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
The static hits burning up and down my spine
I'll risk a blitz for a touch of the divine, won't shy away
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
Til my spirit starts to climb, I'm here to say one more time
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth

[Sryan]

Maybe you should think twice, 'fore picking up your device
And giving another sorry electronic apology Oh, oh tell me can you hear me now? oh, oh yeah I bet you can hear me now Did, did, did I stutter? Boy it's over I'm done playing these games
You chose the wrong girl to play you must not remember my name
(You breaking up, up, up) don't wanna hear another
digital lie
(I'm so fed up, up, up) not another generic reply

(I've had enough, nough, nough) I won't hear your
excuses this time

[Chorus]

It feels so right when you make me feel shocking
around the clock
I just can't stop from toe to top, a flash of light, a
human spark
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
The static hits burning up and down my spine
I'll risk a blitz for a touch of the divine, won't shy away
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
Til my spirit starts to climb, I'm here to say one more
time
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth

Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth

[Sryan]

So stop with all the texting, I'm on to the next one, might as well give it up Nothing you can do is gonna make it cool, uh oh your minutes are up
No this is not the way I saw this ending But I'm not going any longer pretending that you're something that you never were No I won't be rejected, this number you have reached been disconnected, oh!

[Chorus]

It feels so right when you make me feel shocking
around the clock
I just can't stop from toe to top, a flash of light, a
human spark
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
The static hits burning up and down my spine
I'll risk a blitz for a touch of the divine, won't shy away
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
Til my spirit starts to climb, I'm here to say one more
time
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth

Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth

Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
Oh, electronic earth
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
I want to know the birth, this is electronic earth
This is perfect, this is perfect

[Sryan]
Here you go, calling my phone, with another lie I ain't
