I roll out of bed with the laugh dragged out of me
I can barely make it to the stairs my eyes struggling Forced to wake up and realize that I ain't going nowhere tonight

(Refrain)

I've been losing my mind, break my back just to make in time
I've been losing my mind, oh no
I keep spending my time, working late 'till half past nine
I've been losing my mind, oh no

What's it gonna take to escape this misery?
Can barely spend a night without falling to my knees 'Bout the thought that I'm forced to wake up and realize captivity has got a hold on me

(Refrain)

I've been losing my mind, break my back just to make
in time
I've been mlosing my mind, oh no

nine
I've been losing my mind, oh no

It's just a circle that keeps on spinnin' round
And no matter what I say I gotta stay there, there's nog way, no way out

I've been losing my mind, break my back just to make
in time
I've been losing my mi, my mi, my miihiind

(Refrain)

I've been losing my mind, break my back just to make
in time
I've been losing my mind, ohh ohh
I keep spending all my time, working late 'till half past nine

I've been losing my mind, ohh ohh

I've been losing my mind

I've been losing my mind, oh no
