How could I not see you were waiting for an answer from me?
How could I believe you were honest
in what you said?
Where will you go now there is nothing that is further reaching?
Draw the line between what you want and what you need

Where is your sense?
Where is your sense of wrong?

Gather your wits from the maze
Bury the rest in the past
Cover the tracks that remain
Carry the weigh to the last

Where is your sense?
Where is your sense of wrong?
