(feat. Ciara)

50 Cent

Ciara

I'm focused man

Darkchild

You should know this man

[50 Cent]

Yes one dose of me will have you addicted

To know me is to love me I handle mah business

Any City any town, touch down I do my thing

I'm a hustler baby I provide by any means

I'm a bring conversation, you should know what I'm about

When you look at me baby you should see a way out

Out the hood, out the drama, out the Bentley Azure

Out the headache an stress you done been through before

[Verse 1: Ciara]

It's only been three months an I already got it bad

So hood that I keep on coming back

My girlfriend's telling me I don't know how to act

But I'm telling them baby bye fall back

He's so good an he knows how to love me

But so hood an he's so heavy in the streets

He's my dude and you better get used to things

And I don't care what you say about me

They say

[Pre-Chorus]

That he does it with the best,

runs it in the west

Tatted on his chest (uh huh)

I like it (so what), I like it

And they say (that he's gonna hurt me)

Just wait and see (but they don't know me)

'cause I am what he wants

his girl and I love it

[Chorus]

I can't leave 'em alone
I tried that good boy game
But the dope boy's turing me on
It's just that he know what I want
So bad, I love that, I can't leave 'em alone
I can't leave 'em alone
I tried that game
But the dope boy's turing me on
It's just that he know what I want
So bad, I love that, I can't leave 'em alone

[Verse 2]

So when I had a good guy he didn't do that much for me
Tried to be hard but that he could never be Always tell me that no one compared to me
But couldn't matta when other guyz was staring at me
Now the top placed back so everyone could look at me
From the A to hills up in Beverly

He's so fly that he knows how to carry me
First class when they talk we don't hear what they say

[Pre-Chorus]

That he does it with the best,
runs it in the west
Tatted on his chest (uh huh)
I like it (so what), I like it
And they say (that he's gonna hurt me)
Just wait and see (but they don't know me)
'cause I am what he wants
his girl and I love it (ooohh)

[Chorus]

I can't leave 'em alone
I tried that good boy game
But the dope boy's turning me on
It's just that he know what I want
So bad, I love that, I can't leave 'em alone
I can't leave 'em alone
I tried that game
But the dope boy's turning me on
It's just that he know what I want
So bad, I love that, I can't leave 'em alone

[50 Cent:]

The more I get the more my ambition tells there more I'll move an A for that girl I'll move ahead for that boy
Then I flip that (double up) kick back (cuddle up)
Your friends try to confuse but you know what
My intentions are good, I can't help it I'm hood

I wouldn't change if I could, you shouldn't tell me I should
Baby you should take me as I am
And be happy you're my girl 'cause I'm happy I'm your man

[Bridge: Ciara]

If he gets caught, it just takes one call
I'll come running, boy I promise I will be there for you
All my heart it belongs to you
I can't lose you, boy I just can't leave you alone

[Chorus x2:]

I can't leave 'em alone
I tried that good boy game
But the dope boy's turning me on
It's just that he know what I want
So bad, I love that, I can't leave 'em alone
I can't leave 'em alone
I tried that game
But the dope boy's turning me on
It's just that he know what I want
So bad, I love that, I can't leave 'em alone

Ohhhh

Its Another Darkchild Classic Man
