she turning 21 on the mississippi river heading out of new olean the year is is 1894 oh come on mama and love me some more her dark eyes flash like a gamblers rings she shakes her pretty head and sings

CHORUS

life for me is a riverboat fantasy watching the sun go down a rock and roll band with a reifer in my hand now look at that wheel go round cocaine kisses and moon shine misses thats the life for me im sailing away from my heartache on a riverboat fantasy

SECOND VERSE

can't think can't drink anymore whisky delta sun beats down like a hammer mmm it give the low down blues i've got a cotton gin a wee man spin to shake the dust from my shoes i've made my money i've found me a honey to tickle me under my chin when morning comes i'll ride into town and worry about the shape i'm in

a rock and roll band with a reifer in my hand
thats the life for me(yes it is)
fantasy
