[Chorus]

It's not the sunshine thats calling you baby
It's not the good times that are calling you baby
It's not my money thats calling you so baby come home

[Verse 1]

Well I once had a girl with a smile like no other
Only took 2 months before I told her I loved her
I just put my heart out on the limb of a tree
But then my girl said it back to me, yeah

End of the summer things weren't looking so pretty
My girl had to go away to college in the city
And though we promised ourselves to bridge the long distance
It ain't that easy when your heart just misses

These walks on the beach and drives down the coastline
Caught under the stars making love like that one time
We both fell asleep with the moon in the sky and then woke up with the sun in our eyes
Butâ€¦

[Chorus]

It's not the sunshine thats calling you baby
It's not the good times that are calling you baby
It's not my money thats calling you so baby come home
Oh girl, just fucking come home

[Verse 2]

But jealousy eats at me from the inside
Never been a jealous man but now I got it on my mind
If you had friends who were guys yo I didn't mind
But when you lost that feeling I had to rewind

Erase all the memories forget about the dinners

Take back the things I said and now you know I'm finna Forget all about you but its hard to pretend
Because not long ago you were my best friend

[Chorus]

It's not the sunshine thats calling you baby
It's not the good times that are calling you baby
It's not my money thats calling you so baby come home

[Bridge]

Girl, Pick up the phone I'm calling you
Long distance
Please, pick up the phone I'm calling you
Long distance
Pick up the phone I'm calling you please, please, please

[Chorus: repeat 2X]

It's not the sunshine thats calling you baby
It's not the good times that are calling you baby
It's not my money thats calling you so baby come home
