Who do you think you are
Come round here promise earth the moon the stars
Gun behind your back
Smile ten miles wide putting shackle around my neck
This is still me land
Bought with blood sweat and tears
From my daddy's daddy's dad
Be on your way with your slick ball and chains
Ain't gonna happen today

Know that I know what's wrong and what's right
Know that I know that if you want a fight
Know that I know you can lock me up
Know that I know
There's a whole lotta folks had enough

What you see
Is the blood of the few so we can be free
I'm happy to fail
To live or die by the work of these two hands
Living free under God
That's ok by me

Know that I know what's wrong and what's right
Know that I know that if you want a fight
Know that I know you can lock me up
Know that I know
There's a whole lotta folks had enough

Sounds old fashioned but I'll take my chances
Count my blessings and stay free
Cause the next thing you know before you get old
There'll be no place to go
Now you know
