I've been looking for Salvation I've been searching low and high I'm tired of being patient all this waitin's been a waste of time.

It's no wonder how we got here in many ways I wrote this script by loading all our treasures into the belly of a sinking ship I tried to hold you but My hands were cold I meant to catch you but I moved to slow I hate to leave you but it's time to go.

Well our love has left us tired " this love has beat us black and blue it's the child that's still in me That wants even though were through I want to hold you by my hands are cold I meant to catch you but I moved to slow I need to leave but I know it's time to go.

I've been looking for Salvation I've been
searching low and high
I forgot that it was waitin in your smile in your eyes down the hills and through winding roads you hold my mind and I've lost control I never meant to fully disappear now that your gone it has become clear I hope to see you before hell gets cold I'm scared to leave but I know it's time to go
