"In My Bed"

You took that vow then you broke it clean
You broke it clean
You broke that vow that you gave to me
Gave to me
Thunder and fire gonna cleanse the breeze
You better take those sins outside
Hope they wash 'em clean
Wash 'em clean

Love oh love
There's a line there
And I will bend it till it breaks
Or I find a way to bend it some more
Love I'm not a blind man
But I will shut my eyes
If it keeps you in my bed
In my bed

When morning comes
Oh there better be
There better be
The woman I love lying next to me
Next to me
Do what you need
Do what you need
Just make sure that when morning comes
You're there next to me
Next to me

Love oh love
There's a line there

And I will bend it till it breaks
Or I find a way to bend it some more
Love I'm not a blind man
But I will shut my eyes
If it keeps you in my bed
In my bed

Bricks they will fall
And walls will tumble down

No home lasts for long
With walls strewn on the ground

At tether's end there's a black hole
And I don't know
Where it goes
Oh where it goes
Where it goes
Broken bones
Love is throwing stones
Broken hearts and broken bones
Don't leave me alone
Me alone

Love oh love
There's a line there
And I will bend it till it breaks
But I will shut my eyes
If it keeps you in my bed
In my bed
