We met in a big room with the lights shining through You walked up to me and said
"How do you do?"
your charming smile
pulled me in close to you

I wish we could go back to the days when the sparks
were in the air
and nobody seemed to care
I wish we could go back to the night when I said
"Everything will be alright"
I've never regretted
I've never regretted
anything more

You told me about your dreams and I told you about mine We'd talk till late at night cuz we lost track of time But now we pass each other without even a stare and it's gone
it's already gone

I wish we could go back to the
days when the sparks
were in the air
and nobody seemed to care
I wish we could go back to the
night when I said
"Everything will be alright"
I've never regretted
I've never regretted
anything more

I still remember those words you said to me
"Follow me and everything

is alright"
"Follow me and everything
is alright"

I wish we could go back to the
days when the sparks
were in the air
and nobody seemed to care
I wish we could go back to the
night when I said
"Everything will be alright"
I've never regretted
I've never regretted
anything more

Oh, more
