The illest you've not seen yet
The realest you've not heard yet
We in the green man like reconfirmed bets
Your rap sheets are unseen like idle threats
And none rival me like the primabilly checks patriots
Psycopath rap, the lines of the craziest
Stretch em out, comfortable, these boys are the laziest
My god, no atius in vain, they are ashamed
To redefine lame, in laments terms
We hack these niggas, and crash their domains
Place foot on they throats,
I hit the booth like assassin's creed
They wearing red coats,
Freedom fighter, born righteous,
And the most ultimate of all ciphers
Infite earth crysis, mc proper edicate, I'm the nicest
Thieves like us, prestiges bites us
Lol I should write, I tell, I tell about
How the scene failed
Reboot it, don't be confused with
The spin offs lost in the different world so exclusive
Of supliments and additives
With nothing extra added in Just my life, the mike, my pad and my pen

9 times out of 10, 9 times out of 10
my life, the mike, my pad and my pen 9 times out of 10, yeah.
