I know the feeling grows and the breeze is cold "Lore"
crossing by the river
Let's breathe for awhile, give me a smile and swim
across the river.
Some faces tired by the sun, hunger is only one song,
hurry you little son
Running and fighting
They want to work in San JosÃ©. They want to work in USA. They have a lot of faith.
Running and fighting.
They want to live a better place! They want to see the children play! They want be someone great!
Running and fighting, This is blue

Up, oh Up, oh Up, they're running with the faces up!
they're running with the faces blue!

The tide is high, the sea has pride, keep the course
Sulay
The shore is close, so, follow my voice and looking at Sardinia.
Some faces tired by the sun, hunger is only one song,
hurry you little son
Running and fighting
They want to work in Madrid . They want to work in Leeds. They want to get to Berlin.
Running and fighting.
They want to live a better place! They want to see the children play! They want to be someone great!
Running and fighting, This is blue

Today their kids are playing in Madrid, Barcelona, Liverpool, London, Leeds, Florida, New York, San Francisco, Milan, Rome, Hamburg, Frankfurt, Paris,.....
