[Verse 1] They say an eye for an eye, makes the world go blind
We're starving for the truth but they keep feeding us lies subliminal messages are controlling our minds and everything is shrouded and dark, Im trynna find the light.
So look into my eyes, See the pain inside.
We all trynna survive, strive and rise through the struggle
that this jungle resides.
Im taking a piece of the devils pie, taking a sip of that holy water got me going jesus christ .Im just washing away my sins now , let the story begin. Im just trying to meet my ends so what the fuck is a friend.
Im just living with no limits ,
Going through the times like the chronicles of riddick
, knowing everyones a critic so

[Chorus] The Money Comes And Goes
If you dont know, Now you know
You pray for the money
Ill never sell my soul
I guess you'd sell your soul
The Money Comes And Goes
If you dont know, Now you know
You pray for the money
Ill never sell my soul
I guess you'd sell your soul
They say this life is priceless
Dont pay the price
Ill never sell my soul
then it will leave you lifeless

[Verse 2] I Made a voucher that the money and the power wouldn't change me ,
and i would always remain the same me no matter what the circumstances are never let the dollar take your heart let alone phase me you probably think im crazy but whats a pot of gold to a diamond in the rough when you have to sell your soul while your climbing to the top then you hit the end of the road , now your fighting just to stop your fighting just to stop your time is over , they took your clock big brothers watching and they ain't never stopping we ain't got no options we gotta solve this problem this is my Anunnaki flow follow Hammurabi's code Viiluminati through my mind , soul , and my body illuminate illusions , bring the truth into the light rolling up the dankest loud getting to the newest high thinking about your future , your path is what you decide just remember we're the reason that jesus was crucified

[Chorus]
The Money Comes And Goes
If you dont know, Now you know
You pray for the money
Ill never sell my soul
I guess you'd sell your soul
If you dont know, Now you know
You pray for the money
Ill never sell my soul
I guess you'd sell your soul
They say this life is priceless
Dont pay the price
Ill never sell my soul
