I'm so tired living in a world full of violence
While my generation just sits in silence

It's said sacrifice or attention or now separation is non-existent
And then all is fine
Because possessions create suffering die when we come to an understanding
That we are one

Because the truth lies inside of our minds
When we find that
We are strong
Only silence can tear us down
It won't stop us now.
Because we will change our generation
Gonna show the world we can and we will Cause
We are one
We are one

See open up your heart and you'll find you will have an eternity of life in
Your mind
And you'll become one.
Because the only thing you need is the power of a dream,
In the mind of the youth therein lies that we are one.
Yeah

Because the truth lies inside of our minds
When we find that

We are strong
We won't be silenced
Can't tear us down
Won't stop us now.
Because we will change our generation
Gonna show the world we can and we will Cause we are one
We are one

Yeah

Cause we are one

We are one

We are one

We are one
