We finally found or place in the debt of leaders
History shows us the path of this fallacy
Is this a nation of liars and cowards?
Media outlets have failed, these faulty factions bring us

Falsified fact in spite of the deaths;
Spreading chaos throughout the world.
They get what they want in spite of their debt,
Their tactics have got fallacious appeal

Iâ€™ll never see how anyone believes what they say.
Fucking anything that comes out of their mouths is always hope but just
Lies to our faces, you fucking disgraces

So whatâ€™s the real deal baby,
Donâ€™t get nothing for free
Iâ€™ll never compromise my intellect
To make an amends, you see
I have a big problem with your broken regime
But I got no problem with shrugging off
This fabricated dream -

Youâ€™re all the same
And no one owes you a thing

Arrogance, straight the fools who detest such things.
Perilous. Extending the aftermath; transpired quick.
Great conceit, welcoming; Take note and laugh like itâ€™s their fault.
And slay the weak, purging what once was real
