Been sentenced
with 9 to 5
not busting our asses
trying survive
my mind's
so far from clear
what the fuck
are we doing here

not the best of the best or the worst of the worst stuck right in the middle of the middle fucking class

lets go

brought up to fit the mold routine bullshit is getting old day after day/dealing with this shit need a change of pace/its time to split its time to splittttttttttttt

so far from clear
what the fuck are we doing here breakout
to start again
always told we would never win
