Look at the state of this place
The dishes are piled up it's a mess on the floor
Between the wind and the door

There's a thought I cannot shake
It's just cold as a lake
and it just wont breake

I don't belong here
(on a day like this)
I don't belong here
I should be somewhere else

Now the days pass over so much faster the nights linger on what feels like forever, my woman i see and scars may bleed

There's a thought I cannot shake
It's just cold as a lake
and it just wont breake

I don't belong here
(on a day like this)
I don't belong here
I should be somewhere else

Oh I don't belong here (on a day like this)
I don't belong here
(I should be somewhere else)

(oh no) I don't belong here
(on a day like this)
I don't belong here
I should be somewhere else
