"Speak Up"

Apologize, compromise
Stand in line, you're just fine
Not hungry, or you might
Allow yourself to speak up
Speak up

You're in control staying small
Know it's right, black or white
Simple dresses, not too tight
Oh, you don't speak up
Speak up

Don't hide your mouth behind your head
Say it now, you're allowed, I'm waiting
Don't pretend you know it all, I'm waiting
Don't be scared to fall

Every size, analyze
Watch the fights, stay up all night
Close the door, pace the floor
Oh, you don't speak up
Speak up

Don't hide your mouth behind your head
Say it now, you're allowed, I'm waiting
Don't pretend you know it all, I'm waiting
Don't be scared to fall

Don't hide your mouth behind your head
Say it now, you're allowed, I'm waiting
Don't pretend you know it all, I'm waiting
Don't be scared to fall, I'm waiting
I don't pretend I know it all, I'm waiting
To not be scared at all
