You gotta get off the clock, get on the phone
And tell everyone you know
To get on over to my house,
And leave their worries there by the door

It's probably gonna get a little crazy
Your memory's gonna be a little hazy
Pray you don't forget it, that's right, I said it
It's gonna be epic

If you want some, come and get some
We got enough girl to get around
We're just good friends having a good time
Everybody is a-throwing down

We're living it up, living it up
Livin' like you've never, ever done before
If you want some, come and get some
If you run out, come back for more

Now don't run for your truck if the blue lights show up
Everybody just keep your cool
My cousin's a cop, and we ain't gonna stop
'Cause he's here to party too

It's probably gonna get a little crazy
Your memory's gonna be a little hazy
Pray you don't forget it, that's right, I said it
It's gonna be epic

If you want some, come and get some
We got enough girl to get around
We're just good friends having a good time
Everybody is a-throwing down

We're living it up, living it up
Livin' like you've never, ever done before
If you want some, come and get some
If you run out, come back for more

We don't need remindin' it's been a hard week

Girl, let's unwind, and come on, baby,
You know what to do

Yeah

If you want some, come and get some
We got enough girl to get around
We're just good friends having a good time
Everybody is throwing down

We're living it up, living it up
Livin' like you've never, ever done before
If you want some, come and get some
If you run out, come back for more

Yeah
