School bell's ringing
Everybody's chilled out
Summer time started so
It's time for us to bail Out
On my to the crib
Yea we're bout to set it of Hanging on the beach
Party till we get enough
After a cool party
There's a pool party
Jumping in the water
Cooling my whole body
Then it's time
For the boulevard
To be seen by the paparazzi (cheese) ~o

Rocking on the boulevard
In my new Versace car
Living like a movie star
Isn't this real bizarre
That I'm seeing all
My favourite celebrities
Cars and they are all looking
At me like who is she?, isn't
She from the internet or Dubai

The guy I really like from school
Finally notices me but he thinks I Wouldn't date him cuz I'm famous Boy just follow your heart and If it says you can date me than
That means you just have to Come to me

(chorus)
summer, summer
everyones looking forward to summer woah oh oh
