There's a chemical reaction when your eyes meet mine
Like a disease that's kickin' in, it happens every time
I catch a fever when you walk in the room
98.6 goes to 102

You're like poison from a dart
Venom straight to my heart
You're like a fire strolling through my veins
I've got symptoms that I can't explain
So biologic
No way to stop it
B-b-boy you're toxic

Shoulda known to just stay away
From that lethal kiss
There ain't no pill that I can take
To get me over this
Too late, I'm too far gone
I can't medicate, a love so strong

You're like poison from a dart
Venom straight to my heart
You're like a fire strolling through my veins
I've got symptoms that I can't explain
So biologic
No way to stop it
B-b-boy you're toxic

Woah, love so contagious
Woah, a little bit danger
Terminal attraction, lethal kind of passion

You're like poison from a dart
Venom straight to my heart
Like a fire strolling through my veins
I've got symptoms that I can't explain

You're like poison from a dart
Venom straight to my heart
You're like a fire strolling through my veins
I've got symptoms that I can't explain

So biologic
No way to stop it
B-b-boy you're-
B-b-boy you're toxic
Boy you're toxic
B-b-boy you're toxic
