"Wake Me Up"

Somewhere I know your waiting
For someone to sweep you off your feet
But you know that I'm already here

And somehow your voice is singin
Nonstop its in my head and theres
Noway I'm comin home tonight

And I will keep on fallin
Over and over again for you
And im afraid theres nothin I can do

And you say we're movin way to fast
And think that this will never last
So how did this all become unglued

Wake me up when you get over this
And take me home
We're both fed up with this
It makes me sick I'm on my own
