Oh baby don't start crying You shouldn't feel the need anymore
Time is on your side So take it with pride People come and go They put their cards upon the table
So when it happens to you again Just show your life is stable

So look to your left Then look to your right
You know that you Can put up a fight Oh baby Oh baby

Baby your the one for me With your looks you can move mountains
You know you can see Baby your the one for me

You know you are free To do as you please So make the right choice You can do it with ease

So baby don't start crying You shouldn't feel the need
anymore
Time is on your side So take it with pride

So look to your left Then look to your right
You know that you can put up a fight Oh baby Oh baby
