I'm leavin' you tomorrow Nothin' left to say We had good times together Now were goin' our separate ways

The light has gone out The fire's stopped burnin'
The past is now forgott'n My heart is now turnin'
Lady of the night Give me a bottle of whiskey
To wash away the pain Life will start again

I've made my decision I wont change my mind
You wont feel sorry You know that it's time

The light has gone out The fire's stopped burnin'
The past is now forgott'n My heart is now turnin'
Lady of the night Give me a bottle of whiskey
To wash away the pain Life will start again

Free as a bird Flyin' high above That is how i feel A life without love
No more tomorrow Just live for the day
Now things that must be Are all goin' my way

The light has gone out The fire's stopped burnin'
The past is now forgott'n My heart is now turnin'
Lady of the night Give me a bottle of whiskey
To wash away the pain Life will start again

You wont stop me goin' I have to move on
The time has now come I did think you were the one

The light has gone out The fire's stopped burnin'
The past is now forgott'n My heart is now turnin'
Lady of the night Give me a bottle of whiskey
To wash away the pain Life will start again
