when is enough not enough, when is too tough too tough pushing us both away, I'm talking bout you Renã© Im never gunna let you go,you know you're are my heart and my soul, I need you at my door oh i oh i oh my sweet Renã© i get a little bit closer every day to the man that i am trying to be,oh my sugar, oh i oh my sweet Renã©
every body plays the fool, and i ain't no exception to the rule
i count my blessings every day, for you my sweet Renã©

lets give love a fighting chance, and not just push it away cause even if you weren't here, I know my love would still stay for my sweet Renã© get a little bit closer every day oh I
to the man that i am trying to be, oh my sugar, oh i oh
my sweet Renã©
Im on the verge, of breaking down confused and lost, and crying out God I'll change, I see today your light does shine through my sweet Renã©
