The night you read Ben's letter
I would've cried for you
I wish I could've stayed a while
So now you're on your own

And we all go down
No one ever sees what they don't want to see

And we all need something to lean on
When our stars are fading away
And we don't know if we're coming or going
But you shine brighter, yeah, you do anyway

Now he's gone forever
Guess that means you too
Maybe it's the state I'm in
But it won't stop, no, it just won't stop

And we all went down
None of us see what we came here to see

And we all need something to lean on
When our stars have faded away
And we don't know if we're coming or going
But you shine brighter, yeah, you do anyway

Yeah, you shine brighter
Yeah, you do everyday

We all need something to lean on
When our stars have faded away
And we don't know if we're coming or going
But you shine through, yeah, you

Yeah, you
Yeah, you
Yeah, you
