broken heart, mistaken trust a mind so pressured and lacking love this life seems so unclear mistaken fortune spin the wheel

if you felt the things i have so many fucked up memories years gone bad
you'd take a closer look at yourself shame hatred lacking soul you can't understand because you've always had more memories at the back of my mind send pain right down my spine

years gone bad
i'm left here to die you're laughing i'm screaming as life goes by i can't understand this world
