Seems that my life's flashing right before my eyes
Hear to may stories
Told to many lies
I just can't go on
Living like this
That's okay because my ignorance is bliss

Sitting away watching the world pass me by
And all I needed was one try
And I know
What I feel and what I see is wrong
That's okay cause I know that I'm
Feeling like the only one

I sitting in this box it doesn't mean a thing

Or prepare me for what my life's gonna bring
I just can't swallow my pain and all my pride
For what's expected and how it burns me up inside

Sitting away watching the world pass me by
And all I needed was one try
And I know
What I feel and what I see is wrong
That's okay cause I know that I'm
Feeling like the only one [2x]
