I remember yesterday
All my choices were walking away
When someone
Some gave them to me
I know just what I got
She's all my father wanted for me
All he wanted for me

I'm on a one way street with a one way mind
I gonna take my decision and I'm gonna be fine
It's those things I've said
And Those things that I've done
Want you to know you're the one

I'm feeling down and low
Like my life has no where left to go
Like there's no where to go
I know just what I got
She's all my father wanted for
All he wanted for me
I'm on a one way street with a one way mind
I gonna take my decision and I'm gonna be fine
It's those things I've said
And Those things that I've done
Want you to know you're the one

Take me to somewhere
That I know that I've never been
Take me and know
But feel that I was wrong

I'm on a one way street with a one way mind
I gonna take my decision and I'm gonna be fine
It's those things I've said
And Those things that I've done
Want you to know you're the one
Want you to know you're the one
