This is how she broke down trying to leave town
Shes got the whole world in her hands
And she'll leave it behind in a moment
For this one last stitch romance

I still miss the way I love her
Sunday morning undercovers
Now stripped and cold
She's left her own her own

And she's screaming out
Ohhh
Let's make this last forever
Ohhh
It's time that we move on
She outta control and she's come to far
Here I am your deepest scar
Turn this up you know just who you are

This is what she wrote down trying to leave town
She got the whole world on their knees

And shell leave it behind in a moment
For that chance I'll set her free
Sleepless nights leave us dying
For tomorrow well keep fighting
And I want her to know that I'll always be her biggest fan

And I'm screaming out

[Chorus]

In time I want to be your best friend
Sad enough we know how this ends
Heart on sleeve I'm breaking down
Why don't you save me
In time I want to live forever
Time apart will make things better
Hold on to our memories
(Now) Chain me down and set me free
