I was tangled in the all wires
Tied down and I felt the fire
There was nothing for me to do
I was searching but not for you
I am caught up in your desire
It's flush in the face desire
I wanna trade in the old for new
I was searching but not for you

I've been looking for a new emotion
I've been taken with a new emotion
I've been walking backwards
I've been walking backwards

Oh confession it sets me free
I feel the friction of you and me
Fight back but it wins, it wins
Set it loose but but it starts again

I've been looking for a new emotion
I've been taken with a new emotion
I've been walking backwards
I've been walking backwards

I've been looking for a new emotion
I've been taken with a new emotion
I've been walking backwards
I've been walking backwards

I've been walking, walking backwards
I've been walking, walking backwards
I've been walking, walking backwards
I've been walking, walking backwards
