Sittin' on the couch, late at night
Looking out the window at the street light
One bottle in a paper sack
Half empty on the floor
I've laid down about 3 times
But sleep ain't ever took my mind
Cause all this stuff reminds me of you
Only one thing I know how to do is

Haul it all out in the field
Only way I know to kill this pain
Kick it out the back of my truck
And stack it up
Let emotions start this thing
Gas it down with some gasoline
Sit and think of you one last time
And set it on fire

Light that bed that we slept on
I let it burn till the break of dawn
Let all those photographs go up in smoke
I know I'll never live it down
Till it's all black ashes laying on the ground
Out of sight and out of mind
I'm telling you, it's hard

To haul it all out in the field
Only way I know to kill this pain
Kick it out the back of my truck
And stack it up
Let emotions start this thing
Gas it down with some gasoline
Sit and think of you one last time
And set it on fire

Yeah, haul it all out in the field
Only way I know to kill this pain
Kick it out the back of my truck
And stack it up
Let emotions start this thing
Gas it down with some gasoline

Sit and think of you one last time
And set it on fire
Set it on fire

I'm gonna strike a match
I'm gonna set it, set it on fire
