Staring up above at all these stars,
Look how they're so far.
Got a dream on one or maybe even two
That I'll find you.
I'm smaller than the trees, smaller than the mountains,
Smaller than the night sky.
But you and me together, bigger than a paradise.

Now I know
This might sound crazy, maybe it's all wrong
But I'll never let go

Oh, if it could lead back to you,
Then I'll keep walking home,
Walking through the storm,
Cause I belong to you.
Pick my feet up off the ground,
Calling out until you're found,
I'll keep walking home,
Cause I belong to you.
I belong to you.

Like a speeding bullet tryin to make my way
Back through the night.
Oh, I feel the time ticking but all I can do is try.
I got my hands in my pocket looking for a rocket
Funny how I'm dreaming tonight.
Oh, I feel the time ticking tick-tock,
Can't stop it.

Now I know
This might sound crazy, maybe it's all wrong
But I'll never let go

Oh, if it could lead back to you,
Then I'll keep walking home,
Walking through the storm,
Cause I belong to you.
Pick my feet up off the ground,
Calling out until you're found,
I'll keep walking home,

Cause I belong to you.
I belong to you.

Love will lead me back
Someday I just know that
Love will lead me back into your arms
Right where I belong
Someday I just know that
I'll be coming home

Oh, if it could lead back to you,
Then I'll keep walking home,
Walking through the storm,
Cause I belong to you.
Pick my feet up off the ground,
Calling out until you're found,
I'll keep walking home,
Cause I belong to you.
I belong to you.
