Yo I'm a battlestar knight like I'm jedi
Galactic battlestar like I'm ready Rough to the tough but I'm sharper than the geam in your eye
Ready for the 12 check get steady, on your marks set
Your best to throw you hands high Heads to the sky keep your eyes peeled listen for the sign
You cause there can only be one
A trip stage walk wire, I bring fire till I'm done

Here we come again the microphone specialists
How many times does it sound like this

Action time

Take back the track rewind
Sing it for me one more time

[Chorus:]

If you feel the force throw your hands to the sky
Put your hands up, get em' up, put your hands high
If you wanna jump we can give you what you want
Put your hands up, get em' up, put your hands high (2x)

I lead the packs like Bruce Wayne leads da batz
Rocking top hats with my verbal attacks
Yo when I raps boogie down
Can you hear the bell tower ring when you're time travelling from
The funk that I bring fly wit me I'll take you higher when I'm walking over fire, come on follow the messiah
I run jump skips over battle ships
Doing lyrical back flips on the stage that I rips
How many times does it sound like this

Here we come again the microphone specialists

Action time

Take back the track rewind

Sing it for me one more time

[Chorus]
Here we come again the microphone specialists
How many times does it sound like this
Action time
Sing it for me one more time
Take back the track rewind
[Chorus
