

59 Times The Pain "Beliefs"

Visit "Beliefs" on MotoLyrics.com

Time out, wait a minute here
Gotta get a clear head
Need time, to take a look within
I've been misled
Lost track, of my priorities
Caught in maze
Confused, a struggle within
In search for ways
In search of which way to turn
Of which way that's best for me
It's time to sort things out

And start working after my own beliefs
For long, been at war with myself
It's holding me back
My strive, is something i've lost
Something i lack
Got to, level with myself
This can't go on got to, turn things aruond
And come out strong
