Got it, got it, got it, got it all in sight

Sometimes I really hate myself
Keep looking down instead of appreciates
All the things I have done
Throughout life I have won
Done a lot of shit that other people only dream of
But still I fell like "What the fuck went wrong?"
But that's life man, you've gotta be strong
From day one to the last
Let the past be the past
And forget the past erase the past
It's time for some appreciation

Got it, got it, got it, got it all in sight

No need to feel this way
Gotta find my life
And I know that it's here to stay
'Cause I've got it all in sight

Will I ever learn to love myself?
So fed up with all of this goddamn hate
You've got it, yes I know
Now you must let it go
I've got it all so why not quit my whining
Looking for answers in the book of life
Fuck that I've got it all in sight

From day one to the last
Let the past be the past
Now forget the past erase the past
It's time for some appreciation

Got it, got it, got it, got it all in sight

No need to feel this way
Gonna find my life
And I know that it's here to stay
'Cause I've got it all in sight
Call off the search for what I'll never find
Erase the past and then leave it all behind

'Cause I've got it all in sight

Take some time to sort things out
This constant search is turning me inside out
Appreciation of what I have done
Gain some self-respect which right now I have none

No need to feel this way
Gonna find my life
And I know that it's here to stay
'Cause I've got it all in sight
Call off the search for what I'll never find
Erase the past and then leave it all behind
'Cause I've got it all in sight

Got it all in sight
