"My Love"

Oh, I know that this world is round It's dark and uncertain but I'll be beside you my love
And oh, the future is hard to see But I'll keep you steady as long as you hold onto me

My love, I just wanted you to know
My love, you will never be alone
If you get lost and you don't know where to go, you can always come home, my love

Oh, I know that this road is long Sometimes I get scared but I know I'll be safe in your arms
Oh, 'cause when you are holding me
I know I'm as ready as I'll ever be

My love, I just wanted you to know
My love, you will never be alone
If you get lost and you don't know where to go, you
can always come home, my love
