I can understand it, although we never planned it
To be so gloomy and full of despair.
Our love is dying, and I know it's crying
For a change and a breath of fresh air, so
Let the wind blow, let the day frown,
Let the old leaves come tumbling down.
I'll be waiting, I'll be right here
Where you left me when you went away.
I'll be praying for your welfare
And hoping that you will come back some day.
Let the wind blow....
I can sympathize as I realize
That it's not what you had in mind.
Our love is dying, and I know you're crying
For the good things we've left behind, so
Let the wind blow, let the day frown,
Let the old leaves come tumbling down.
I'll be waitnig, I'll be right here
Where you left me when you went away.
I'll be praying for your welfare
And hoping that you will come back some day.
Let the wind blow...let the wind blow...
I know you wanted to go, but we should be together
Any kind of weather, and I am waiting,
Waiting, waiting, waiting for you to come back,
Back to me.
Let the wind blow (let it blow), let the day frown,
Let the old leaves come tumbling down.
(You know) I'll be waiting, (I'm here) I'll be right here
Where you left me when you went away.
(You know) I'll be praying (I'm here) for your welfare
And I'm hoping you will come back some day.
Let the wind blow...let the wind blow
'Cause I'll be waiting, I'll be right here waiting for you.
I'll be waiting, I'll be here dear, and I'm hopin'
To renew our love...let the wind blow.
