*Whoa-o-o-oo-h*

Uh-huh...

Just hopped off the phone with my man

Out in Tokyo, Japan

Said he got no lights

And he had a rough night

His people were suffering

Earthquake, tsunami and all of that

People looking for their kids

They ain't callin' back

Got tears in their eyes

Can't hold em back

Hope your pain heal fast

Can't change the past

I'm gettin' faded

Thinking of how my day went

Thinking of how I'm lucky

I made it in entertainment

Duckin' federal agents

Cuffin' us in the rain

Man, my brothers lock down

Be patient, you gon' make it.

Can't stop a bird from taking flight

Forget the worries

You'd better go out & live your life

And even coming up in the worst place

You could still be first place

In this race against time.

[CHORUS]

Tonight's the night

I just opened my eyes

This world is crashing on site

I'm thinking "God, oh my my"

I'm just speaking my mind,

Can't you read between lines

I'm just tryin to catch up

But it's a race against time.

They say the world is one third land

And two thirds water
Lost one third of my fam
To upsurge slaughter
The wealthy only want new pearls
This part of me
I'm worrying about the
New World Order
Global warming,
Abnormal stormin'
Twenty degrees (F) in spring time
That's is a warning
Now here's the new shhh
I just heard they've found radioactive water
Up in Massachusetts
Now that's a long way
From the Japanese coast
All the way to the east coast
So tell your peoples
They don't need to keep the heat close
For a hater
The biggest enemy to us now is
'Mother nature'
Somebody call Father Time
Tell him get back to the crib
And get his wifey in line
Now hear the pulse of the people
One beat at a time
Keep your head up Japan
The rising sun gon' shine.

[CHORUS]

*Reach for the stars 'cause everything, everything will be okay
We come too far to let people, to the people fall...*

[CHORUS]
