

Asher in the Rye "Autumn"

Visit "Autumn" on MotoLyrics.com

Autumn came and went for me it started just as soon as he began to dance and sing my name now things will never be the same and all bets are off

Winter went without a beat as we held hands and watched our feet and I was buried in the snow and begged of you to let me go

you know you were wrong

Now the sun is fading fast
I couldnt tell it wouldnt last Dismayed I lay as this is passes the straw was drawn the fate was cast and trouble is

I dont mind
I dont mind
I dont mind mind mind
I dont mind
