Once again united
Yet so far away
Together we watch this evening
As slowly it turns today

Our souls on fire
Burning like a million suns
Why do we collide?
Collide into each other
Why do we believe?
In the truth that we can't unravel

Together taking chances
To find out what it could be
Is this an illusion?
Or a new reality?

Our souls on fire
Burning like a million suns
Why do we collide?
Collide into each other
Why do we believe?
In the truth that we can't unravel

Why can't I feel you in my veins
Driving me insane
Nothing seems the same

I can feel you running in my veins
Driving me insane
Helping ease my pain

Why do we collide?
Collide into each other
Why do we believe?
In the truth that we can't unravel

Why do we collide?
Collide into each other
Why do we believe?
In the truth that we can't unravel
