So whats going on tonight?
We've had fights before, but it's always turned out alright
Try to figure it all out
I took you for granted, I took you for granted!

(chours)
Stay tonight... we've had fights before,
But nothings gonna' be alright!
Stay tonight... you said you loved me once
So baby, prove it tonight.

So what's this all about?
you give me all your reasons,
But still I got my doubts
I know I gotta' get you back
Nothing else matters, nothing else matters!
