RON:

It's not fair
It's not fair
I didn't know
I wasn't there

It's not fair
It's not fair
Seeing you lying there

I wasn't strong enough to save you from the evil stuff
I wasn't smart like you To do what you would do

I know I'm not a leading man I know I'm not a star but I know what makes me special is what I feel in my heart....

I'm just a sidekick
but I love being at your side

I've been in the shadows for far too long - But I'm the leading man of this song
I was a stupid doofus but now that's gone I'm ready for a change, gonna keep calm and carry on!

I know I'm not a pretty boy, but I'm a man I'll find a way to save ya baby, yes I can don't confuse the way i was with the way I am I'm ready for a change, gonna take a stand

I'm just a sidekick
I'm just a sidekick
I'm just a sidekick
but I love being at your side

I'm always forgotten always come in second place

I'll never be a front man no one can remember my face
If I was in a dinner
I would surely be the less prominent taste but when I think of how I feel for you and the love I have inside I forget about all the things I am not and my heart swells up with pride

Am I the strongest (no I'm not) Am I the smartest (no I'm not) Am I the hottest (no I'm not) But am I the greatest (no I'm not)

Am I the hero (no I'm not) Am I the one who steals the show (no I'm not) Am I the one who you should know (no I'm not) But am I the one who takes you home (definitely not)

Am I the chosen one (no I'm not) Am I the prodigal son (no I'm not) Am I almost done (no I'm not)

But I'm the one who's gonna love you with-- all of his heart because... that's what I got!
I'm the one who's gonna love you with-- all of his heart because... that's what I've got!

I'm not a great athlete, I'm no good at art
I know my brain is not my most impressive part My wand can barely work and my car won't start but I know what makes me special's what I feel in my heart

I'm just a sidekick
I'm just a sidekick
I'm just a sidekick
but I love, I love, I love being at your side
